By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, May 9.—Co-operation in financing cotton was promised by important New York bankers at a meeting today with the committee of the war finance corporation, which is in session here.

The committee was formed at Atlanta recently under the auspices of the Federal International Banking company.

"The committee discussed at length," Mr. Meyer said, "the details of the plan for making effective the offer of the war finance corporation to make advances on cotton under contract for export to Europe. It was agreed that the committee would make a study of the situation and report to the committee on the war finance corporation."

"The committee also discussed the question of sales on credit to European countries in order that they may be able to purchase additional amounts of American products and thus help the war finance corporation."

Winter Wheat
And Rye Crops
Pass 1920 Ones

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, May 9.—This year's winter wheat and rye crops will be larger than last year, while the hay crop will be about the same as a year ago, the department of agriculture today forecast.

Winter wheat acreage showed a slight increase over 1920, with a result of favorable weather during the winter and a crop of 42,537,000 bushels, or 1,000,000 bushels more than last year.

Hay crops are estimated on the average at 1,000,000 bushels more than last year. The 1920 crop, Nebraska's crop will be about 1,000,000 bushels more, and Oklahoma's about 1,000,000 bushels less than last year.
